Prepare to be amazed

At the University of Pittsburgh, you have access to world-class academic programs. Our faculty are at the cutting-edge in their fields and invite undergraduate students to work with them on mind-blowing research projects. You'll study on a park-like campus in a vibrant, energetic urban neighborhood—surrounded by (guaranteed) internship opportunities at globally-recognized organizations and corporations. Our student body is smart, open-minded, and ambitious. If you think that you can't get everything you want out of a college experience, Pitt is happy to prove otherwise.

Our reputation speaks for itself.
But others chime in, too.

Big Ideas at Pitt

At Pitt, you will have opportunities to talk about big ideas and accomplish big things. All Pitt students are guaranteed a placement in at least one internship or experiential learning opportunity once they complete our Internship Prep Program. Pitt Honors is committed to providing challenging courses and opportunities, including the prestigious Bachelor of Philosophy degree (offered by only a handful of universities in the United States). Our Outside the Classroom Curriculum helps you develop your skills as a leader, citizen, and scholar. Pitt students regularly participate in research projects with our distinguished faculty, searching for answers to big questions in science and medicine, the arts and humanities, social science, engineering, business and entrepreneurship, and more.

No ordinary college town

The City is Our Campus

Pittsburgh has been called one of America's most livable cities. And for good reasons. With rapidly growing corporations, non-profits, and startups all over the city, there are plenty of places to put your training to work with career-building internships. Pittsburgh also boasts a diverse arts and entertainment scene. Whether you are a major foodie, a sports fanatic, a culture buff, an outdoors adventurer, a shop-a-holic, a music lover, or have a wide mix of interests, you will find something to love in Pittsburgh!

The Panther Card (Pitt student ID) allows you to ride public transportation fare-free, get free access to many of the award-winning museums around the city, and purchase discounted tickets to many cultural events. Each of Pittsburgh's 90 neighborhoods are culturally diverse, so you are sure to find an area of the city that makes you feel at home.

The Value of Pitt

Apply Early

Apply to Pitt before December 1 to automatically be considered for first-year merit-based scholarships. Federal aid, grants, and loans are available to eligible students who fill out a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Pitt makes your education accessible

Pitt admits students with academic and personal promise without consideration of ability to pay. We'll work with you and your family to help make a Pitt education a reality. Visit affordability.pitt.edu to learn about programs like:
