The University of Pittsburgh offers you a world-class education at an affordable price.

At Pitt, you can find everything you want to build an amazing life and future. With a 14:1 student-to-faculty ratio, you will be studying and researching with professors who are leaders in their field. Pitt is one of the top-ranked institutions in the world for research and innovation. Our urban location opens up many opportunities for internships and research, and our park-like campus is the perfect place to study and relax.
Office of International Services
The Office of International Services is your immigration specialist on campus. They will help you make sure that all of your immigration issues are handled smoothly, quickly, and correctly. They also provide social and cultural programming to help you adjust to life in the United States and experience American culture.

Path to Pitt—Guaranteed Admission Program

International students who are academically prepared to study in an undergraduate program at the University of Pittsburgh but need additional English language training can take advantage of the Path to Pitt program. The Path to Pitt program is an alternative to conditional admission and provides eligible students with an opportunity for guaranteed admission to one of the University of Pittsburgh’s four campuses after successfully completing studies in Pitt’s English Language Institute (ELI).

In the Path to Pitt program, you will:

- Build English language skills to succeed at Pitt
  - Develop presentation and classroom discussion skills
  - Strengthen essay-writing skills
  - Expand note-taking skills for academic lectures
  - Enhance reading comprehension strategies

- Prepare for academic studies in the U.S.
  - Discover ways to be an active participant in an academic classroom
  - Formulate new ways to interact with individuals from different backgrounds, experiences, and cultures
  - Develop skills to interact with faculty and staff at a US university
  - Learn how to use resources at the university before you begin degree studies

- Adjust to U.S. culture and life in Pittsburgh
  - Become more familiar with new environments and life in the US
  - Begin to build a community for support
  - Learn about everyday tasks, like how to take the bus and where to shop
  - Learn why people put a chair in a parking space, what the locals like in their pierogies, and how to use “yinz”!

Where is Pitt?

The University of Pittsburgh is located in the city of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. A vibrant and welcoming city with a diverse culture and history. It is easy to find cuisine from all over the world! With rapidly growing corporations, non-profits, and startups all over the city, there are plenty of places to put your training to work with career building internships and other experiential learning opportunities. Pitt also offers four regional campuses in Western Pennsylvania in Bradford, Greensburg, Johnstown, and Titusville.

- Four seasons with average temperatures ranging from -2° to 23° C.
- Home to three professional sports teams: Steelers (National Football League), Pirates (Major League Baseball), and Penguins (National Hockey League).
- Host to the headquarters for world-class corporations specializing in financial services, advanced manufacturing, and healthcare.
- Many museums, galleries, performing arts venues, and cultural institutions call Pittsburgh home.
- Easy access to the Pittsburgh International Airport via public transportation (which is fare-free with a valid Pitt student ID).
