Office of International Services (OIS)
The Office of International Services is your immigration specialist on campus. They will help you make sure that all of your immigration issues are handled smoothly, quickly, and correctly. They also provide social and cultural programming to help you adjust to life in the United States and experience U.S. culture.

Housing
On-campus housing is not mandatory but is guaranteed for three years to first-year students who pay their enrollment and housing deposits by the assigned deadlines. Pitt offers 18+ residence halls with amenities and the option to live in a Living Learning Community.
International Student Organizations
You can get connected to the campus community through Global Ties, a program that builds community with domestic and international students through cultural programs, a mentorship program, a student-led International Outreach Committee, and more.
